

ALEXANDRIA, VA.
THURSDAY, MAY 19, 1870.

Mr. Hamilton, of Maryland, delivered yesterday in the Senate a very able speech when the bill of "Pains and Penalties" was up for discussion. He said that the great object of the Radical leaders now "is to absorb what little remains of the former rights and powers of the States, to consolidate, to centralize. One by one, the reserved rights that once gave power and dignity to a State, are stricken down. The object is to force upon a State and the people of a State the will of Congress. Instead of the Constitution, this will is to be substituted as the supreme law of the land. Coercion is the grand discovery and the omnipotent remedy of the day. Nothing is to be left to the assent of the governed and the voluntary observance of the duty of a citizen. Even in the effort that should be made to restore the States to their practical relations to the Union, the same malign spirit prevailed, and we had the striking spectacle of Congress presenting the alternative to the unhappy people of the Southern States of either adopting this Fifteenth Amendment, so repugnant to them, or of remaining still without a civil government."

Mr. Ferry of Conn., is paying the penalty for the independence he exhibited in the Senate on Tuesday, in his speech advocating removal of disabilities and test oaths. Besides being rebuked by the ultra leaders on the floor of the Senate, he is charged in the Washington Chronicle with being a "technical Republican"—having a softening of the brain—a peculiar democratic odor—a pettifogger in behalf of rebel clients, &c. All this inclines us to believe that Mr. Ferry's speech has "vitalized" the ultra very considerably; indeed, hurt them—and to hope that he will have the courage to stand up firmly against mere abuse, in defence of right and justice.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of B. H. Shackelford, of Fauquier. He was a gentleman well-known and appreciated not only in his own county, but throughout the State, as an able lawyer, and a fine speaker. Ardent and active, he was always prominent in the political contests of the day. At the time of his decease he was a candidate for a seat in the legislature, and was engaged in the canvass when stricken down by death. We knew him long and well, and as all did who knew him, his death is lamented, and his memory will be cherished by his surviving friends.

The Legislature will, very properly, strike out of the election bill, the clause requiring the registered numbers of the voters to be placed on their ballots. The new Constitution intended that the ballot should be secret. Let us "face the music." The ballot system we deplore, as a great evil—likely to be felt severely in the future interests of our State. We hope to see it abolished, yet—and the good old Virginia mode—open, manly, viva voce system restored. But we must not evade what the people of the State have accepted.

The State Department has received official advices that the long pending naturalization treaty between Great Britain and the United States has at last been signed by the two governments and will soon be laid before the Senate for ratification. By this the British government recognizes the citizenship of an adopted citizen of the United States the same as a citizen born on the soil, and thus yields the doctrine maintained for so many years that no citizen of Great Britain can transfer his allegiance.

In the debate, in the House of Representatives, on Tuesday, on the Naval appropriation bill, Mr. Morgan of Ohio, Mr. Dawes of Mass., and Mr. Logan of Ill., were severe upon the expenses and management of the Navy Department. They complained of abuses, malpractices, increase of expenses, &c., &c. Mr. Morgan was down upon the creation of the offices of Admiral and Vice Admiral. The bill, amended, was passed yesterday.

The ladies of Beaufort, in South Carolina, whom the events of the civil war deprived of their possessions, have turned their attention to a branch of industry from which they hope to derive the means of subsistence. They make the green oranges which are produced on the plantations into preserves, and send them to the North for a market. They are skillfully prepared and are neatly put up in glass jars.

Guy's Monument House, in Baltimore, fronting 78 feet on Monument square and 118 feet on Fayette street, including the building in which are the Monumental Bowling Alleys, subject to a ground rent of $70.16, has been purchased for $120,000, by Mr. H. E. Patterson, of Perrymanville.

While our countrymen are so fond of dilating upon the rapid increase of population in our own large cities, they seem to be unaware that the same thing is visible in Europe, where all the leading towns are growing rapidly in size and population.

Our exchanges in all the neighboring counties speak of the improved appearance of the wheat, and of the prospect for a good crop. The trying time, however, is yet to come. We hope that present anticipations may be more than realized.

Whittemore, the cadet peddler, who was recently expelled from Congress, it is said will be re-elected. He is a scoundrel, at present residing in South Carolina, and has a class constituency in the First District of that State.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

"To show the very age and body of the Times." A despatch from Chicago says:—"At St. Paul, last evening, Mrs. Elizabeth Hatch called on Miss Jessie Bush and requested to see her privately. They entered a room, when Mrs. Hatch turned the key of the door, and then shot Miss Bush through the lung, inflicting a fatal wound. Mrs. Hatch immediately ran from the house, exclaiming, 'Send for a Doctor, quick; I did not intend to kill her, but myself.' She gave herself into custody. Both the women were of impure character, and a quarrel from jealousy on account of a paramour existed between them."

The Gov. of N. Y. has vetoed the Arcade Railroad in New York. The Chief Eng. of the N. Y. Elevated Railway publishes a statement that the accident on Monday evening was solely owing to the centrifugal force of a heavily laden car moving at high speed. That test was equal to the weight of one thousand passengers crowded into one car designed for forty persons, and that the escape of the occupants of the passenger car fully demonstrates the value of the precautions taken by the Company and the security of the road when in actual operation.

It is understood the President will shortly send to the Senate the name of Brevet Major General Schofield to fill the vacancy in the list of Major Generals in the United States Army, and that of Colonel Reynolds, now commanding the Department of Texas, for the rank of Brigadier General.

Secretary Fish has given permission to the British Red River expedition to pass through the Sault Ste. Marie Canal, unless the vessels are loaded with troops or munitions of war. The Red River difficulties, it is believed, are over, or about over—and the military will not be needed.

Large numbers of delegates have arrived in Philadelphia to take part in the meeting of the General Assembly of the reunited Presbyterian Church, commencing to-day. The sessions will be held in the First Presbyterian Church. Rev. Dr. McCosh, of Princeton College, is named for Moderator.

The Indians in Idaho are represented, in late reports to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to be engaged in peaceable avocations. The small-pox is said to be prevailing among those of Southern Kansas and the Indian Territory.

Foreign News.

The French Corps Legislatif met yesterday and proceeded to count and verify the vote on the Plebiscite. When the result was declared the members of both Centres and of the Right received the announcement with shouts of "Vive l'Empereur." Jules Simon approached the tribune and attempted to make some observations, but the Chamber refused to hear him. He submitted an interpellation on the manner in which the election had been conducted and took his seat. The Chamber separated with renewed cries of "Vive l'Empereur!" from the majority.

The editor and director of the Reveille have been condemned each to imprisonment three months and a fine of 1,000 francs. The editor and director of the Kappel have also been sentenced to 1,000 francs each and two months' imprisonment. Many persons in addition to those previously condemned have been convicted of participation in the late riots.

LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.] RICHMOND, May 18.—In "old times," political excitement scarcely ever ran higher than at present, in this city, and if an earnest endeavor or can accomplish it, the conservatives will undoubtedly carry the city. The registration in the city shows a falling off of 587 whites and 997 colored, as compared with 1869, but it is thought that the present registration will be considerably increased on the 24th and 25th, when the books will be again open for revision, addition and correction.

The House of Delegates, to-day, passed the bill, ordered to be engrossed yesterday, striking out the provision of the election law requiring the judges of election to endorse the number on the ballot. The bill will probably pass the Senate to-morrow.

In the Senate, to-day, the Judiciary Committee reported that it was inexpedient to legislate upon the propositions for prohibition of hunting at wrong seasons of the year; prohibiting manufacturing establishments from working their employees more than ten hours a day; to prevent the destruction of fish in the waters of the State; to repeal or modify the tonnage laws; affording relief to persons charged with bailable offenses, in which it is difficult to obtain bail under the operation of the Homestead law; and to authorize one Notary to take the acknowledgment of a married woman.

Bills were reported conferring judicial powers on Mayors of towns having less than five thousand inhabitants, and investing the sergeants of said towns with the powers and duties of constables, and Senate bill authorizing the Supreme Court of Appeals to prescribe rules regulating practice and pleading, and to establish the forms of pleadings and of process, with amendments.

The House bill making an appropriation of $15,000 to pay for Sycamore Church now occupied by the House of Delegates, was lost for want of the requisite constitutional majority, the vote standing 20 yeas to 10 nays.

A bill was reported to amend and to enact the third section of the act passed March 2, 1866, in relation to the adjustment of Confederal contracts, which was referred.

A bill providing for the election of justices of the peace and constables in the city of Alexandria, was passed.

The bill for the more efficient protection of the property of married women, was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 15 to 12.

The Committee on House Expenses reported a resolution requiring members before drawing pay to certify that they were in actual attendance except when absent on account of sickness or leave. A motion to lay the resolution on the table was lost, and it went over under the rule.

The bill was further discussed and amended and finally recommitted to the Finance Committee, which committee immediately reported the original bill again. A motion was then made to strike out the exemption clauses, voted yesterday, but it was lost, yeas 43, nays 46. Without further action on the bill the House adjourned.

The primary election in this city takes place to-morrow, and the friends of the respective candidates are busy marshaling their forces for the fight. Messrs. Elyson, the present incumbent, and Mr. Kelley, member of the House of Delegates, are the opposing Conservative candidates.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The much talked of marriage between M. R. Demotie, and Cordelia Downing, daughter of George T. Downing, who keeps a restaurant under the Capitol, took place yesterday. A large number of prominent colored persons were present. The ceremony was performed by Bishop John B. Brown, of the African M. E. Church. The toasts were superb, the display of diamonds and costly statins and lace being as elegant as any fashionable evening witnessed in this city.

The total amount of rent paid for private buildings occupied by the government in the District of Columbia is $90,624, divided as follows: State Department, $17,250; Treasury, $26,000; War, $1,621; Navy, $2,791; Interior, $2,400.

The House committee on the District of Columbia yesterday, by a vote of 4 yeas to 3 nays, agreed to report in favor of the bill establishing mixed schools in the District of Columbia. Washington has contributed some $2,500 for the relief of the sufferers by the late calamity in Richmond.

DEVILISH.—At the Radical meeting on Saturday evening last, Dr. Bayne, the colored orator, thanked God for the great calamity that killed about seventy-five persons, and wounded double that number in Richmond three weeks ago. Bayne regarded this awful and appalling accident as a visitation of Providence upon the white race in Virginia. These sentiments were warmly and loudly applauded by the mass of sable listeners, and strange to say, there were in that audience men whose faces were white, who acquiesced in Bayne's sentiment and in the applause which followed it utterance, without attempting to correct or reprove this worse than cannibal feeling, which gloated over the destruction of the lives of so many human beings.—Norfolk Journal.

"THE STRONG-MINDED."—A mass meeting of women was held in New York, on Tuesday, at which Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton delivered an address on love, marriage, divorce and the McFarland case. A petition was read and circulated asking Gov. Hoffman to have McFarland caught and put in an insane asylum. The meeting adopted with enthusiasm the Sorosis resolutions tendering sympathy to Mrs. McFarland, and approving of the conduct of the late A. D. Richardson in making love to that lady. The meeting being intended only for females, two gentlemen who intruded were put out. A man in disguise, however, elaborately gotten up, contrived to pass current as one of the assembly, and remained undetected.

THE NEW YORK PULPIT.—Some notable sermons were preached in the New York churches, Sunday. Rev. Mr. Hepworth, at the Church of the Messiah, discoursed on "Insanity and Crime," and incidentally on the McFarland case. He took the position—bold and startling, because coming from the pulpit—that the violator of the sanctity of marriage should be killed. Said he:—"The man, who dares to step between man and wife, let him die the death." Mr. Hepworth denounced the present marriage service as a lie, and demanded that the sexes shall stand before the altar as equals.

The friends of the treaty for the purchase of San Domingo say that the prospects of its ratification by the Senate are improving.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The Staunton (Va.) Spectator states that at a meeting of the directors of the Valley railroad on Monday, the president reported a subscription to the capital stock by the president of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad of $700,000, thus making the stock already subscribed amount to $2,400,000. When the subscription is completed, the amount necessary to build the road will be complete, and the whole work put under contract.

Mr. Platt, one of our Congressmen, had one of his colored Petersburg constituents appointed some time ago as mail agent on the route from Norfolk, Va., to Raleigh, N. C. John F. Shaw was the name of this appointee. Well, Shaw did his best to master the difficulties of the situation, but has found himself unequal to the task, and a successor has been appointed.
